

EXCELLENT AIR AND MARITIME CONNECTIVITY

Weekly flights to the main European and African cities, maritime connections to all the main international ports and latest-technology telecommunications ensure a global connectivity from the Canary Islands.

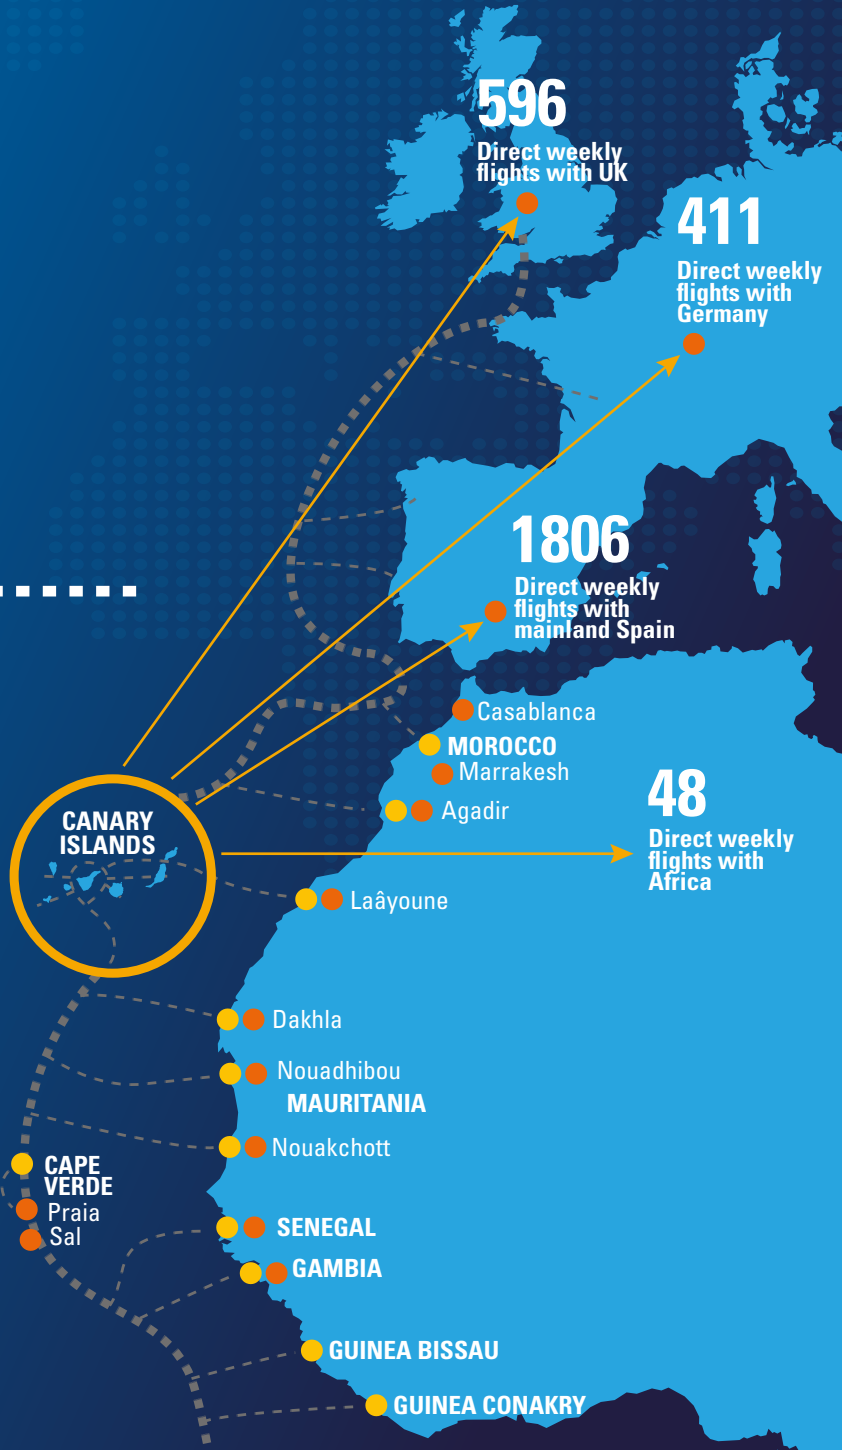

AIR CONNECTIVITY

- 8 Airports
- 6 international
- 35,7 Million pax/year
- 42,9 M TM freight traffic

MARITIME CONNECTIVITY

- 26 Comercial ports
- 7,4 Million pax/year
- 36,6 M TM freight traffic

INTERCONTINENTAL CONNECTION POINT

Integrated in the main international trade routes, the Canary Islands are located at the crossroads between Europe, Africa and America.

AIR CONNECTIVITY

- 8 Airports (6 international)
- 35,7 Million pax/year
- 42,9 M TM freight traffic

ESTIMATED FLIGHT TIME TO:

Casablanca	02:00
Marrakesh	02:00
Agadir	01:35
Nouakchott	01:50
Dakar	02:15
Praia	02:00
Madrid	02:30
London	04:00
Lisbon	02:00
Paris	04:00
Ireland	04:20

WEEKLY DIRECT FLIGHTS TO:

United Kingdom	596
Germany	411
Africa	48
Spain (mainland)	1806

MARITIME CONNECTIVITY

- 26 Comercial ports
- 7,42 Million pax/year
- 34,6 M TM freight traffic

MARITIME CONNECTIVITY

- Canary Islands to Stavanger 6 days
- Canary Islands to Nigeria 7 days
- Canary Islands to Houston 13 days
- Canary Islands to Aberdeen 8 days

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

• Submarine fiber-optic cable

Nº of Connections:

- EU	9
- Africa	4
- America	2

• D-ALIX project

A bridge linking with Africa, EU & America

• 50 SATELLITES

Provide communication services in the Canary Islands